"Paul Casey's reenactment of the many facets of Elvis' life and career along with his tribute to Elvis is amazing! The Broadway touch of his performance - along with his tremendous voice is truly a compliment. The show must be seen to be believable. Paul's ideas are refreshing and very professional. The Stamps Quartet is truly honored to be a part of such a tremendously "powerful" show. Thank you Paul for making us feel welcomed and to bring back those special days of the 70's."
-Ed Enoch - Owner - Manager - Lead Singer, The Stamps Quartet

"I have seen Paul Casey as a young man imitating Elvis and I couldn't believe his voice!" Since then, he has only perfected the "Elvis" moves. No other Elvis impersonator would even have the guts let alone the confidence to perform in front of the real Elvis "on screen" for everyone to see!" "Having known Elvis personally, been a guest at his shows, and having made his original trademark glasses - I can truly say that Paul is the only one that could match Elvis' energy! Thanks to Paul, who shares his gift with all of us, we can continue to enjoy and embrace Elvis' music always!!!" -Hans Fiebig, Elvis Presley's Optician and Optician to the Stars

"I have seen Paul Casey perform numerous times, both in my home town, Las Vegas, and in Europe, and I had the pleasure of seeing Elvis perform at the Las Vegas Hilton on several occasions. I can say without a doubt, when Paul performs- "Elvis re-enters the building". -Jim Germain President, USA HOST

"One of the greatest assets that Paul has is the fact that he has the audience in the palm of his hand as soon as he walks on stage. He is a terrific performer who has captured the eloquence as well as the sexuality of Elvis." - Moon Civetz, General Manager, USA Hosts (Lighting Consultant 1973 Aloha from Hawaii Concert)

"Paul Casey is the Voice of Elvis" -Greg McDonald Rick Nelson Manager, Col. Parker assistant
"Elvis had two major passions, Music and Martial Arts (Kenpo). My father was a Kenpo instructor to Elvis as well as his personal Body Guard. Paul Casey knows both of these sides of Elvis and his ability to communicate that with his act has come from his unreal ability to capture the true essence of the King himself. Paul is a fantastic entertainer and a dedicated martial artist who uses the Martial Arts philosophies to add depth to his unreal performance."
-Ed Parker Jr. President-International Kenpo Karate Association

I went to work with Elvis & the Col. In late 1968 & worked with them until 1995. My job depended on what was happening (on tour or in Vegas or setting up tours) I did security & promotional work so I got to work with both Elvis & The Col. Elvis was a person you could sit and talk with just like regular people. I learned a lot from both of them. I enjoyed my time with the show it was great. I met Paul Casey many years ago through a mutual friend. The more we talked and I got to know him, the better I liked him. I gave him some insight that knew about Elvis and the show. I always admired Paul's drive. His music and the way he could organize & promote his music & himself. I'm proud to call him my Friend. -Rick Logan, Col. Tom Parker Assistant

"Paul IS the BEST! I knew Elvis and he would be impressed" -George Barris King of Customs Original Creator Elvis personal and movie car
